Course #C554
Course Title: DISABILITY LAW CLINIC

Course Overview: Up to six Law Students are invited to work in the Disability Law Clinic, the area's primary resource for information and representation on the law as it pertains to people with disabilities. Each student will be assigned several cases on which they will participate in all areas of case development from client interviews to court appearances. The cases assigned will all be in the area of Administrative Law. Attorney Adam Brown will supervise all work done in the Disability Law Clinic. Each student will meet with Mr. Brown at least once a week to discuss the status of the cases on which they are working. Mr. Brown will designate additional office hours throughout the week for additional supervision as needed.

In addition to their work in the Law Clinic, students will learn about Disability Law and case development with Professor Brown.

Time: By Appointment – Email Professor Brown to arrange your schedule

Course Description: In this elective course students will receive clinical training in Disability Law. Each student will be responsible for handling several cases within the Disability Law Clinic.
